The melody is written in a simple, flowing style with various note values including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The music is marked 'SLOW.' and features several measures with slurs and ties, indicating a continuous melodic line. The notation is clear and legible, typical of a piano or guitar score.

RYTHM

The rhythm section is located at the bottom of the page and consists of a single staff. It begins with a double bar line and a common time signature (C). The rhythm is composed of a series of eighth notes, with groups of three notes beamed together, indicated by the number '3' above each group. The staff ends with a double bar line and repeat dots, suggesting that this rhythmic pattern is to be repeated throughout the piece.
